

Maryland Natural Resources Police

Noteworthy cases January 2016 to March 2016

- January 6, 2016 Somerset County One individual charged with harvesting oysters in a non-designated area.
- January 7, 2016 Talbot County Three individuals charged with harvesting oysters from a sanctuary.
- January 10, 2016 Wicomico County One individual charged with possessing oysters before sunrise, failure to tag oysters, and four counts of possessing undersize oysters (29%-55% undersize oysters per bushel).
- January 12, 2016 Talbot County Eight individuals charged with harvesting oysters from a sanctuary.
- February 1, 2016 Dorchester County Two individuals charged with fishing for striped bass with an unmarked gillnet and leaving gillnet unattended while fishing for striped bass.
- February 9, 2016 Dorchester County One individual charged with 146 counts of harvesting undersize oysters (7%-27% undersize oysters per bushel), (does not appear in citation summary).
- February 19, 2016 Somerset County One individual charged with harvesting oysters from a sanctuary.
- March 2, 2016 Talbot County Four individuals charged with harvesting oysters from a sanctuary and patent tonging in a non-designated area.
- March 15, 2016 Talbot County Four individuals charged with harvesting oysters from a sanctuary.
- March 16, 2016 Somerset County One individual charged with power dredging for oysters in a sanctuary.
- March 21, 2016 St Mary's County One individual charged with harvesting oysters from a closed area.