

Maryland Natural Resources Police

Noteworthy Cases from October thru December 2015

- October 12, 2015 - Queen Anne's County – One person charged with Theft of crabs from a commercial pot.
- November 4, 2015 – Talbot County – Recreational fisherman charged with over limit and undersize striped bass, 56 fish in possession.
- November 30, 2015 – Somerset County – Two individuals charged with dredging oysters in a non- designated area.
- December 3, 2015 – St Mary's County – One person charged with harvesting oysters while license is suspended/revoke.
- December 9, 2015 – Anne Arundel County – Two individuals charged with harvesting 25 bushels of undersize oysters (Does not appear in Citation/warning sheet, next page).
- December 13, 2016 – Worcester County – Possession of scallops without a permit.